FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MCDONALD COUNTY WOMAN SENTENCED FOR METH CONSPIRACY

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that a McDonald County, Mo., woman was sentenced in federal court today for participating in a conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine in McDonald County, Mo.

Cynthia A. Anderson, 35, of McDonald County, was sentenced by U.S. District Judge Richard E. Dorr this morning to five years in federal prison without parole.

On Jan. 16, 2004, Anderson pleaded guilty to participating in a conspiracy to manufacture more than 50 grams of methamphetamine in McDonald County from as early as July 1, 2003, to July 15, 2003. Anderson admitted that she obtained precursors used to manufacture methamphetamine.

On May 18, 2004, co-defendant Donovan Ray Cole, also known as Dino, 31, of McDonald County, was sentenced to 14 years and 2 months in federal prison without parole. On Jan. 16, 2004, Cole pleaded guilty to conspiracy to distribute 50 grams or more of methamphetamine in McDonald County from July 1 to July 15, 2003, and to being in possession of a firearm in furtherance of a drug trafficking crime. Cole admitted that he manufactured more than 50 grams but less than 200 grams of methamphetamine, for which the court sentenced him to 110 months in federal prison without parole. Cole also admitted that he was in possession of a .38-caliber RG revolver, for which the court sentenced him to five years in federal prison without parole. The court ordered those sentences to be served consecutively, Graves said.

This case was prosecuted by Special Assistant U.S. Attorney Kimberly R. Weber Dean. It was investigated by the Drug Enforcement Administration, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, the McDonald County, Mo., Sheriff's Department and the Southwest Missouri Drug Task Force.
